

knot. Only in this way can You undo it. Before You, dearest Mother, and in the name of Your Son Jesus, our Savior, who has suffered so many offenses, having been granted forgiveness, we now forgive these persons forever.

Thank you, Mary, Undoer of Knots for undoing the knot of rancor in our hearts and the knot which we now present to you.

Meditation for Day 4 :

Dearest Holy Mother, you are generous with all who seek you, have mercy on us. We entrust into your hands this knot which robs the peace of their hearts, paralyzes their souls and keeps us from going to our Lord and serving Him with their lives.

Undo this knot O mother, and ask Jesus to heal their paralytic faith which gets down hearted with the stones on the road. Along with you, dearest Mother, may they see these stones as friends. Not murmuring against them anymore but giving endless thanks for them, may they smile trustingly in your power.

Meditation for Day 5:

Mother, Undoer of Knots, generous and compassionate, we come to You today to once again entrust this knot...and to ask the divine wisdom to undo, under the light of the Holy Ghost, this snarl of problems. No one ever saw you angry; to the contrary, your words were so charged with sweetness that the Holy Ghost was manifested on your lips.

Take away from them the bitterness, anger and hatred which this knot has caused. Give us, o dearest Mother, some of the sweetness and wisdom that is all silently reflected in your heart. And just as you were present at Pentecost, ask Jesus to send them a new presence of the Holy Ghost at this moment in their lives. Holy Ghost, come upon them!

Meditation for Day 6:

Queen of Mercy, we entrust to you this knot in their lives...and ask you to give us a heart that is patient until you undo it. Teach them to persevere in the living word of Jesus, in the Eucharist, the Sacrament of Confession; stay with them and prepare their hearts to celebrate with the angels the grace that will be granted to them. Amen! Alleluia!

Meditation for Day 7:

Mother Most Pure, we come to you today to beg you to undo this knot in their lives...and free them from the snares of Evil. God has granted you great power over all the demons. We renounce all of them today, every connection we have had with them and we proclaim Jesus as our one and only Lord and Savior. Mary, Undoer of Knots, crush the Evil One's head and destroy the traps he has set for them by this knot. Thank you, dearest Mother. Most Precious Blood of Jesus, free them!

Meditation for Day 8:

Virgin Mother of God, overflowing with mercy, have mercy on your child and undo this knot...in their lives. We need you to visit them, like you visited Isabel. Bring them Jesus, bring them the Holy Ghost. Teach them to practice the virtues of courage, joyfulness, humility and faith, and, like Isabel, to be filled with the Holy Ghost. Make them joyfully rest on your bosom, Mary. We consecrate you as their mother, Queen and friend. We give you their heart and everything they have (home and family, my material and spiritual goods.) We are yours forever. Put your heart in them so that they can do everything Jesus tells them.

Meditation for Day 9:

Most Holy Mary, our Advocate, Undoer of Knots, We come today to thank you for undoing this knot in their lives...You know very well the suffering it has caused them. Thank you for coming, Mother, with your long fingers of mercy to dry the tears in their eyes; you receive them in your arms and make it possible for them to receive once again the divine grace. Mary, Undoer of Knots, dearest Mother, We thank you for undoing the knots in their lives. Wrap them in your mantle of love, keep them under your protection, enlighten them with your peace! Amen.

We give you this knot that torments them and makes them unhappy and so impedes them from uniting themselves to You and Your Son Jesus, our Savior.

We run to You, Mary, Undoer of Knots because we trust you and know that you never despise a sinning child who comes to ask you for help. We believe that you can undo this knot because Jesus grants you everything. We believe that you want to undo this knot because you are our Mother. We believe that You will do this because you love us with eternal love.

(add each day)

Thank you, Dear Mother. Mary, Undoer of Knots, pray for us.

Closing Prayer (said each day):

Virgin Mary, Mother of fair love, Mother who never refuses to come to the aid of a child in need, Mother whose hands never cease to serve your beloved children because they are moved by the divine love and immense mercy that exists in your heart, cast your compassionate eyes upon them and see the snarl of knots that exist in their lives. You know very well how desperate they are, their pain and how they are bound by these knots.

Mary, Mother to whom God entrusted the undoing of the knots in the lives of His children, we entrust into your hands the ribbon of their lives. No one, not even the Evil One himself, can take it away from your precious care. In your hands there is no knot that cannot be undone.

Powerful Mother, by your grace and intercessory power with Your Son and their Liberator, Jesus, take into your hands today this knot...We beg you to undo it for the glory of God, once for all, You are our hope.

Our Lady, you are the only consolation God gives us, the fortification of our feeble strength, the enrichment of our destitution and with Christ the freedom from our chains.

Meditation for Day 2:

Mary, Beloved Mother, channel of all grace, We return to you today our hearts, recognizing that we are sinners in need of your help. Many times we lost the graces you granted us because of our sins of egoism, pride, rancor and our lack of generosity and humility. We turn to You today, Mary, Undoer of Knots, for You to ask your Son Jesus to grant us pure, divested, humble and trusting hearts. We will live today practicing these virtues and offering you this as a sign of our love for You. We entrust into Your hands this knot (...describe) which keeps them from reflecting the glory of God.

Meditation for Day 3:

Meditating Mother, Queen of heaven, in whose hands the treasures of the King are found, turn your merciful eyes upon us today. We entrust into your holy hands this knot in their lives...and all the rancor and resentment it has caused in them. We ask Your forgiveness, God the Father, for our sins. Help us now to forgive all the persons who consciously or unconsciously provoked this knot. Give also, the grace of forgiveness if we have provoked this
