Jane Brennan Talk

Mrs. Jane Brennan, a post-abortive woman herself, will share her story of healing after abortion. A former militant, anti-Catholic feminist, member of NOW and Planned Parenthood volunteer, Brennan has devoted her life now to speaking about the hurt and shame of abortion. Her powerful testimony is witness to the love and mercy of God. Mrs. Brennan will give her testimony at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parish on Sunday February 7th - 12:30 p.m. In addition to Jane's story, Mrs. Laura Rohling, will also give a brief talk about her own abortion experience. Jane's story should further encourage us to see and understand the power of the grace of God and that it is never too late for anyone to change.

From the Pastor

- Immediate help for Haiti is crucial, but the help will be necessary for a long time. I don't know if our Gulf Coast is yet fully recovered from Katrina. I've been asked about the best way to help. The first is of course prayer, which can be done any time and anywhere, and offering up personal sacrifices for the faithful departed, and for the living who suffer so terribly from this ordeal. The other way is financially. I recommend sending a check to:

The Archdiocese of Denver
Haiti Earthquake
1300 S. Steele St.
Denver, CO 80210

They do a good job down there in seeing that the money goes to the agencies which are truly helping the situation. You can also go to the Catholic Relief Services website.

God be with the Haitians.

Many of us will know people who are in Haiti. Please pray for Gillaine Warne, Mrs. McCaffrey's mom, who works at one of the few functional hospitals left in Haiti.

- The next series of inserts will be a glossary of terms for the Catechism on the Liturgy. Usually a glossary

- If you're at all like me in giving up something for Lent, then you'll experience some falls in trying to keep the falls out of my system so to speak. I'm giving up sugar. But I'm in such a habit of reaching for a donut that I decided to give it up three weeks ago, so that by the time I reach Lent, the habit of taking sweets isn't so ingrained. The flesh is whining about it already!

- I am so pleased with the choir! They sing their hearts out, and are so very generous with their time and talent. I admire you all.
