From the Pastor

• I'm leaving on a short vacation Monday morning, and will drive to Kansas City. Tuesday morning (the 18th, the anniversary of my ordination) I'll make a holy hour in the church of my baptism at Christ the King in Waldo, MO. In the afternoon I'll drive to Wichita for a High Mass at St. Anthony's church, a historic and beautiful church in downtown Wichita. Their choir – the same choir which sang my first holy Mass – will do the music. It will be good to see old friends again. My mom and big sister will be with me for the Mass. Wednesday it's back to KC for a few days of bush trimming and yard work, then I'll go to Denton where I'll attend the FSSP ordinations on Saturday morning, and be the assistant priest for Rev. Garrick Huang, FSSP. After the ordinations I'll come back here on the evening of the 22nd.

• I'm taking the 7 AM Mass off of the website, the front of the building, and the front of the bulletin, because visitors sometimes come here expecting it to be celebrated. The Mass at that time will continue, but only parishioners will know of it through the bulletin.

• Frank Turek has an explanation of why it stands to reason that the Gospels true: No one seeking to spread a new religion would have made up so many embarrassing things about themselves and put them in their writings.

Mass Cancellation

The 8:30 am Mass and morning Confessions on Saturday May 22nd are cancelled. There will still be a 7am Mass, though.

Fr. Jackson's 25th Ordination Anniversary

There will be a Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving at 4:30 PM on Saturday, June 19th, 2010, in honor of the 25th Ordination Anniversary for our Pastor, Reverend James Jackson, FSSP. A potluck dinner will take place selves as dimwits. They fail to understand what Jesus is saying several times, and don't understand what His mission is about until after the resurrection. Their thick-headedness even earns their leader, Peter, the sternest rebuke from Jesus: "Get behind me Satan!" (What press the disciples provided for their leader and first Pope! Contrary to popular opinion, it seems the church really didn't have editorial control of the scriptures after all.)

After Jesus asks them to stay up and pray with him during his greatest hour of need, the disciples fall asleep on Jesus not once, but twice! Then after pledging to be faithful to the end, Peter denies Christ three times, and al but one of them run away.

The scared, scattered, skeptical disciples make no effort to give Jesus a proper burial. Instead they say a member of the Jewish ruling body that sentenced Jesus to die is the noble one – Joseph of Arimathea buries Jesus in a Jewish tomb (which would have been easy for the Jews to refute if it wasn't true). Two days later, while the men are still hiding, the women go down and discover the empty tomb and the risen Jesus.

Who wrote all that down? Men – some of the men who were characters in the story. Now if you were part of a group of men trying to pass off a false resurrection story as the truth, would you depict yourselves as dimwitted, bumbling, rebuked, lazy, skeptical sissies, who ran away at the first sign of trouble, while the women were the brave ones who discovered the empty tomb and the risen Jesus?"

• I will be giving a short talk after each Mass on the 23rd in the parish hall, to start the capital campaign for our new church. I hope you will come!

in the parish hall after the Mass. Parishioners are asked to sign up for the dinner. Families with last names A-L may bring a side dish, and families with last names M-Z may bring a salad. The sign up sheets for the dinner are available in the parish hall. We are asking parishioners to sign up no later than Sunday, May 30th so that we may know the number of parishioners who will be attending. Please come and join us on this most joyous occasion.
