An Appointment to Court

As Bl. Claude de la Columbiere put it, “A second kind of abandonment is a very simple method given by our Lord to St. Teresa of Avila when He appeared to her. ‘Daughter, He said to her, ‘never think of anything but how to please Me, to love Me, and to do My will, and I, on My side, will attend to all your affairs, both temporal and spiritual.’ To grasp this lofty precept look upon yourself as one who has entered the service of a king like Solomon, for example, the greatest and wisest and best of kings in the beginning of his reign. Address Him by saying, ‘Lord, since I know that You are a Prince, as good as You are powerful, as liberal as You are magnificent, I give myself to You without reserve; I will serve You without knowing how much You will pay me by the day or the year, nor even at the end of my time. I promise to think only of Your interests, and mine I leave to Your discretion, or rather, to Your goodness and generosity.’”

Please pray for the sick:

David Williamson Sr & Jr, Robert & Debra DiCino, Lucia & Jorian Spann, Nathaniel Venters, Andy McKinley, James Hamm, Bonnie Joyce-Irish, Brian Wells, Elizabeth Nicolini, Ana Maria Romero, Sha Fisher, Carol Balizet, Nick Cleary, Mary Robles, Sarah Totman, Fernando Ruiz, Steven Chris Valerio, Gabriel Tyler, Virginia Carr, Diane Fisher

* On Palm Sunday, Solemn High Mass and Blessing of Palms at 8:00 instead of 8:30. Low Mass at 10:30.

The Carmelite Monastery is located at 6138 S. Gallup St. in Littleton, about 1 mile from OLMC.

From the Pastor:

- There will be no Holy Hour this Thursday, but at the Altar of Repose following the Mass, the Blessed Sacrament will be adored until midnight.

- On Divine Mercy Sunday, April 8th, there will be a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration at 2:00pm. The Divine Mercy Chaplet will be recited at 3:00pm, followed by Benediction. There will be no conference this Divine Mercy Sunday.

- I would like all the parishioners to consider what the Rt. Rev. Dom Philip Anderson, O.S.B. of Clear Creek Abbey recently wrote following the massacre of the school children in Florida:

For the better informed Christian, this recent killing is not very surprising. When a society loses touch with the well-springs of authentic culture and thrives instead on the pride of its technology and the promise of ever more individualistic freedoms and pleasures, there is danger lurking at the door – a “culture of death.” Sadly, too many citizens have yet to awaken to the simple fact that when faith becomes weak and truth a mere relative notion – when we lose our spiritual bearings and even our very soul – peace and social sanity cannot be maintained. So where does this leave us?

As a monk I shall not try to offer practical advice (or a behavioral algorithm) addressing the multi-faceted challenge that our country faces in the wake of Parkland – others will have done this. But I do know a spiritual recipe that will nourish any human being in search of peace, a state of mind that can combat the appalling and useless violence that has destroyed so many lives. In fact this recipe, useful for our spiritual growth and for fundamental human sanity, goes well with the season of Lent we are living.

Sandwiches for the Homeless

“What you do for the least of My brethren you do for Me.” Sandwiches for the homeless will be made on March 31th, Holy Saturday, at 9:30am in the Parish Hall. Thank you for your generosity in helping

1. Clear the table, collecting all “how to” books about the spiritual life and all “self-help” guides to happiness, placing them in a box to be kept out in the garage to be burned later.

2. Pour three full cups of authentic liturgical life into the baking dish of daily life. The Sacraments celebrated in the liturgy, beginning with the Holy Baptism, are the basic elements here, notably the Holy Eucharist, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, celebrated with a deep sense of adoration. If you fail the rest of the recipe, this alone could suffice. When at all possible, this must be accomplished every day or several times per week. Let simmer, stirring occasionally over the fire of the Holy Spirit.

3. Add one cup of authentic lectio divina, or meditative study of Sacred Scripture along with the works of canonized Saints such as St. Basil or St. Benedict (as in eggs Benedict). A small amount of this lectio is sufficient for those who have active lives, but I must be done regularly. A considerable effort may be required to find the place and time, but this is essential to the recipe.

4. Add one full measure of personal prayer, especially the Holy Rosary.

5. Then add two cloves (crushed) of some work with one’s hands – “manual labor” as St. Benedict refers to it. Pilgrimages on foot can also be substituted for this ingredient.

6. Add one teaspoon of humor. This might come with reading a bit of G. K. Chesterton or some other holy humorist (there are not many in the world). This is necessary so as not to take oneself too seriously – something that will spoil the whole recipe.

7. Bake for the rest of your life as needed.

to make sandwiches for the VOA. Everyone interested please contact Lucy at 303 806 9923.

Mass Intentions

Fr. Kick will not be taking Mass Intentions until June 1st. Fr. Nolan will start taking Mass Intentions on April 1st.
