Catechism on Holy Week

With a brief look at the intention of Archbishop Bugnini on reforming Holy Week under Pius XII, we saw that the concept of pastoralism was the key to understanding this reform. But let me be quite blunt here – what fruits has the liturgical reform of the Archbishop produced? Since these reforms took place we see only three areas of growth in the Church; Eucharistic ministers, permanent deacons and annulments. This is one reason why we chose to use the traditional liturgical books. There are other examples I could use, such as the RCIA. 70% of those who enter the Church through this program will leave it in one year.

Know that at the heart of the liturgical reforms was what Fr. Louis Bouyer called a scientism (which he said was never scientific enough). All must be explainable; all obscurity must disappear under the examination of the light of science. All saints who cannot be scientifically accounted for must be dropped from the calendar.

But to this I would use the words of Henry Beston, from his beautiful book called Northern Farm: “Among the many things for which I remain profoundly grateful is the fact that so much of life defies human explanation. The unimaginative and the dull may insist that they have an explanation for everything, and level at every wonder and mystery of life their popgun theories, but God be praised, their wooden guns have not yet dislodged the smallest star. It is well that this be so, for the human spirit can die of explanations, even if, like many modern formulae, they are but explanations which do not explain.

A world without wonder, and a way of mind without wonder, becomes a world without imagination, and without imagination man is a poor and stunted creature. Religion, poetry, and all the arts have their sources in this upwelling of wonder and surprise. Let us thank God that so much will forever remain out of reach, safe from our inquiry, inviolate forever from our touch.”

12:30 pm Private Intention of Fr. Kick

The Carmelite Monastery is located at 6138 S. Gallup St. in Littleton, about 1 mile from OLMC.

From the Pastor:

- The intention for this week’s Holy Hour is in thanksgiving for all the graces we have received as a parish, from God.

- Last week I worked a teen girls’ summer camp, and was so edified and encouraged by these girls I just had to put it in the bulletin. I had some talks prepared using Dale Alquist’s book on G. K. Chesterton, but early in the week the girls started to ask questions about various aspects of the faith, and didn’t stop for the rest of the week. The questions were excellent. You would have been proud of those girls. Of course, with that much extemporaneous speaking, one runs a high risk of offending by some point made too strong or too weak, but on the whole they were pleased. I had a small cabin to sleep in, with a front porch and a rocking chair. Getting up at first light I put on a coat (it was quite chilly), had a cup of hot coffee, and watched the rain come down and listened to the dripping of the water. My word that was a consolation!

- But not as much of a consolation as the girls. When I had to drive back, I got to Colorado Springs, heavy traffic and the always dreadful I-25, I was sad. Yet it was not the city that made me sad. It was not being with those girls and their chaperones. I really missed them when I left.

- The sample new pew which is in the parish hall has been there for a bit for you to examine and give feedback. I’ve received very positive feedback, but two suggestions – that the top portion of the back of the pew be flatter such that one could place a hand missal on it; and the other was that the distance between the back of the pew and the kneeler be increased. After this week I’d like to get back to the

Solemn High Mass

This Wednesday evening, June 13th at 5pm, newly ordained Fr. Michael Cunningham will have a solemn high Mass at OLMC, followed by a pot-luck company and discuss with them these two ideas...but if you have anything else on the new pews, now is the time to say it.

- When thinking or reading about various procedures such as IVF, as for example last week’s bulletin, I read G. K. Chesterton’s quip while at the summer camp: “Take away the supernatural, and what remains is the unnatural.”

- Dom Mark Kirby, O.S.B. wrote a beautiful prayer for his monks as a personal consecration. This prayer is a gem.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, I open to thee the door of my heart and welcome thee into every part of my life. Enter in, shine thy immaculate brightness into every dark corner; let the fragrance of thy purity dispel the fetid vapors of my sins; change into pools of sweetness the pools of bitterness that have for so long poisoned the deep places of my heart. Too long have I tried to live without thy virginal beauty to fill my eyes, without thy maternal solicitude to wipe away my tears, and without thy good counsel to guide me in the way of peace. Abide with me, O Immaculate Conception, O Queen assumed into heaven, O Joy-of-All-Who-Sorrow, that I may begin, at last, to prefer nothing whatsoever to the love of Christ, to spend myself in adoration of His true Body, and to find in all that obedience asks of me the will of Him Who, in His inscrutable wisdom and inexhaustible mercy, has called me to this life, in this place that belongs to thee, with these other sons of thine, the fathers and brothers whom thou hast chosen for me. To all of us, show thyself a Mother and, at the hour of our death, be to us life’s final consolation and heaven’s open gate. Amen.

dinner in the parish hall. A plenary indulgence was petitioned, and will be given for attending this Mass, with the usual conditions applying. We ask that people with last names beginning with A-K bring a main dish, and L-Z bring a side dish or salad, enough for 10 people please. The parish will provide drinks & dessert. Please RSVP to Joan Anselmi as to what you would like to bring to the reception. She can be contacted at: janselmi1939@gmail.com or 303-798-3275.
