

Announcements cont'd:

their annual lectures by Msgr. McCarthy in the parish hall starting on Saturday, July 29th from 9-5, with a TLM Mass at 11:30am. The talks continue on Tuesday and Wednesday from 1-4:15pm, August 1st & 2nd. All are welcome to attend.

Chaperone Needed

The Teen Girls of Carmel are looking for a couple of young ladies to chaperone their annual retreat camp. This year's camp will take place in Westcliffe, CO from August 13th- Friday, August 18th. If you're available, please contact Danielle at 720.409.9911.

Flower Donations

ARS still has the following dates available for Sunday flower dedications: September 17, October 1, 8, November 19, December 17, and into 2018. Please contact the parish office if you would like to claim a date. A $40 minimum donation is required.

Casa Cristo Rey

The FSSP is looking for long-term volunteers in Guadalajara, Mexico beginning in late August or early September of this year. You will participate in many varied activities and help with the day to day duties in the parish and the house, as well as doing charitable works in orphanages and hospitals, help in street evangelization, and other projects necessary for the development of Casa Cristo Rey.

You will also have the opportunity to take Spanish lessons by the same teacher who teaches the seminarians with the St. Junipero Serra Spanish Institute. This is ideal for young men discerning a vocation to the priesthood. The preferred amount of time is 10-12 months, renewable. Please send inquiries to FSSPGuadalajara@gmail.com. See the bulletin board for more details.

New Book Published

A far-reaching work on contemporary Catholic biblical studies, titled Catholic Biblical Scholarship for the Third Millennium, will be coming out from Loreto Publications (P.O. Box 603, Fitzwilliam, New Hampshire 03447 – Tel. 603-239-6671). Penned by Monsignor John F. McCarthy, founder of the priestly Society of the Oblates of Wisdom (1979), and of the lay Marian Academy of the Oblates of Holy Tradition (1983), this 503-page book presents a lengthy critique of the historical critical approach of the form-critical type, founded by Hermann Gunkel, Rudolf Bultmann, and other liberal Protestant exegetes, and its impact upon contemporary Catholic biblical scholarship. In contrast to this method now in vogue, Msgr. McCarthy presents in detail an up-dated version of what he calls the neo-patristic approach, begun, he says, by Saint Thomas Aquinas, and now ready, he hopes, to become the leading method of Catholic Scripture scholarship for the third millennium.

For additional information about this new book which is the culmination of 60 years of scholarship, contact James Hooper, Press Officer, Oblates of Wisdom, at hooperje12@yahoo.com or 618-741-9308.

First Friday Adoration

An Appointment to Court

The firm resolution to belong to God should produce in us a determination to think only of Him, especially when at His court, which is a church with the Most Blessed Sacrament. This can be practiced in two ways, and practicing (like the priests and altar boys before the ceremonies, or the choir and schola before singing) is most necessary to keep our appointments at court. First, we should accustom ourselves never to voluntarily entertain thoughts, or reflect on subjects which do not concern God directly or indirectly as to the duties of our states in life in general, or in particular. In other words, it would be most harmful for a priest to fantasize about being married, or in the secular state at all. And the best way of dealing with idle thoughts is not to combat them, but just to let them drop, like a stone into the sea. Gradually the habit of acting thus will become easy.

The Carmelite Monastery is located at 6138 S. Gallup St. in Littleton, about 1 mile from OLMC.

Please make checks for the collection basket payable to OLMC Catholic Church. To have a Mass said, please see the individual priest.

Any parishioner confined at home who would like to receive the sacraments, please contact the parish office at 303-703-8538.

From the Pastor:

- The Holy Hour for this Thursday will be for the continued blessing of God on our capital campaign.

- So far 29% of the parish has responded to the Campaign, which includes those who are not able to give at this time. The results are:

$399,744 Cash available.
$371,268 Pledges to be collected.
$771,012 Total.

Deo Gratias!

I hope you would not take too long to respond to this request, either yea or nay.

- Please say a prayer for Elizabeth Nicolini, a long-time and very faithful supporter of the FSSP. She has been diagnosed with Acute Leukemia, and is hoping for a bone marrow transplant. I know the wonderful Nicolini family quite well.

- Last week was a week of losses in many ways; Chris Rodriguez had to have his arm amputated up to the elbow after an accident, and a young family had a miscarriage, which is a different kind of amputation. Both cause real and extended pain. Do say an Ave for them.

- Of the three seers at Fatima, St. Francisco stands out as the contemplative, drawn mystically to "console our Lord." "What is God? We could never put it into words. Yes, that is something indeed which we could never express. But what a pity it is that He is so sad! If only I could console Him! I will stay with the Hidden Jesus!" St. Francisco is a model for contemplatives and all those who wish to advance in prayer, as he did not hear directly the words of Our Lady as she spoke during the apparitions, but accepted them on faith from his sister and cousin. At first, too, the content of Our Lady's message was incomprehensible to little Francisco. However, as the apparitions progressed, Francisco became more and more deeply impressed and absorbed by the mystery of the Holy Trinity, revealed in the light from Our Lady's Immaculate Heart.

Francisco was a great lover of solitude and prayer, often going apart to pray the Rosary, or to spend many hours whispering his love to Our Lord, Whom he understood was so offended by the sins of the world.

Let us ask little St. Francisco to help us to set aside time to be in solitude with Our Lord, consoling His Most Sacred Heart, and may he help us to be faithful to the request of Our Lady at Fatima. "Do not offend the Lord our God anymore, because He is already so much offended." By a nun at the Elysburg Carmel.

- "Perpetual Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament is the devotion which surpasses all others." (St. Pope Pius X)
