Chaperone Needed

The Teen Girls of Carmel are looking for a couple of young ladies to chaperone their annual retreat camp. This year's camp will take place in Westcliffe, CO from Sunday, August 13th- Friday, August 18th. If you're available, please contact Danielle at 720.409.9911.

St. Monica's Prayer Group Cancelled

St. Monica's prayer group will no longer meet. Here is a prayer to pray on your own:

Dear Saint Monica, you were once the mournful mother of a prodigal son. Your faithfulness to prayer brought you and your son so close to God that you are now with him in eternity. By your intercession and God's grace, your son St. Augustine became a great and venerable Saint of the Church. Please take my request to God with the same fervor and persistence with which you prayed for your own son. (Mention your intentions here)

With your needs, worries and anxieties, you threw yourself on the mercy and providence of God. Through sorrow and pain, you constantly devoted yourself to God. Pray for me that I might join you in such a deep faith in God's goodness and mercy.

Above all, dear Saint Monica, pray for me that I may, like your son, turn from my sin and become a great saint for the glory of God.

ARS still has the following dates available for Sunday flower dedications: September 17, October 1, 8, November 19, December 17, and into 2018. Please contact the parish office if you would like to claim a date. A $40 minimum donation is required.

New Book Published

A far-reaching work on contemporary Catholic biblical studies, titled Catholic Biblical Scholarship for the Third Millennium, will be coming out from Loreto Publications (P.O. Box 603, Fitzwilliam, New Hampshire 03447 – Tel. 603-239-6671). Penned by Monsignor John F. McCarthy, founder of the priestly Society of the Oblates of Wisdom (1979), and of the lay Marian Academy of the Oblates of Holy Tradition (1983), this 503-page book presents a lengthy critique of the historical critical approach of the form-critical type, founded by Hermann Gunkel, Rudolf Bultmann, and other liberal Protestant exegetes, and its impact upon contemporary Catholic biblical scholarship. In contrast to this method now in vogue, Msgr. McCarthy presents in detail an up-dated version of what he calls the neo-patristic approach, begun, he says, by Saint Thomas Aquinas, and now ready, he hopes, to become the leading method of Catholic Scripture scholarship for the third millennium.

For additional information about this new book which is the culmination of 60 years of scholarship, contact James Hooper, Press Officer, Oblates of Wisdom, at hooperje12@yahoo.com or 618-741-9308.

An Appointment to Court

The firm resolution to belong to God should produce in us a determination to think only of Him, especially when at His court, which is a church with the Most Blessed Sacrament. This can be practiced in two ways, and practicing (like the priests and altar boys before the ceremonies, or the choir and schola before singing) is most necessary to keep our appointments at court. First, we should accustom ourselves never to voluntarily entertain thoughts, or reflect on subjects which do not concern God directly or indirectly as to the duties of our states in life in general, or in particular. In other words, it would be most harmful for a priest to fantasize about being married, or in the secular state at all. And the best way of dealing with idle thoughts is not to combat them, but just to let them drop, like a stone into the sea. Gradually the habit of acting thus will become easy.

From the Pastor:

- The Holy Hour for this Thursday will be for the continued blessing of God on our capital campaign.

- “Our Lord is hidden there in the Blessed Sacrament, waiting for us to come and visit Him, and make our requests to Him.” (St. John Vianney)

- Normally we make enrollment in the Brown Scapular available after each Mass on the Feast of our holy Patroness, but couldn't this year. So next week after each Mass it will be available to all.

- I will be teaching Adult Education again starting next month. On August 1st at 7 PM, I'll introduce Dr. Cristina Johnson, who has written a fascinating book on the Holy Sepulcher. She will give a talk of about fifteen minutes and be available for question and answer. I'll be adding a few things to what she says, and her book will be available for a donation. She insists that all donations for the book will go to the parish. She and her husband live in Italy, but are here for a time, and will be celebrating the 25th anniversary of their marriage at the high Mass on the 13th of August. She will also sign books for anyone who wants one.

- The high school religion course will start again in September.

- The FSSP North American District has a blog now, with lots of interesting stuff. <https://fssp.com/the-missive/> rejected by 15 states so far this year. Perhaps the hardest defeats for suicide activists were Hawaii and New Mexico, which were considered sure wins for the assisted-suicide movement.

- Connected to this is a study published in April of this year in the Journal of Evaluation in Clinical Practice. It found that 88% of patients who went to the Mayo Clinic for a diagnostic second opinion ended up with a new diagnosis. In 21% of the cases, patients received a completely different diagnosis, while 66% received a “refined or redefined” diagnosis. The original diagnosis made by the primary care doctor was confirmed in only 12% of the cases. These factors need to be taken into account not only regarding the decision for suicide, but for all of us in our everyday connection with medicine.

- And in an article in First Things, Aaron Kheriaty quoted a medical study of Tyler VanderWeele which shows that between 1996 and 2010, those who attended any religious service once a week or more were five times less likely to commit suicide. Of the almost 7,000 Catholic women that were in the study – who said they attended Mass at least once a week – none committed suicide. Self-identified Catholics who did not attend Mass had suicide rates comparable to those of other women who were not active worshippers. The article ended with the story of a man who jumped off the Golden Gate Bridge to his death. The last entry in the man's diary, written hours before his death, said, “I'm going to walk to the bridge. If one person smiles at me on the way, I will not jump.”
