From the Catechism of the Council of Trent: Part IV - The Lord's Prayer

Importance of Instruction on Prayer.

One of the duties of the highest importance to the faithful is that of Christian prayer; and whatever is necessary to the performance of prayer is comprised in the Our Father..

In the First Place, the Necessity of Prayer Should be Insisted Upon.

Prayer is a duty not only recommended by way of counsel, but also commanded by obligatory precept. Christ the Lord declared this when He said: We should pray always. He Himself was to them a model of prayer; He not only prayed assiduously, but watched whole nights in prayer.

So various are our temporal and spiritual necessities, that we must have recourse to prayer. For since God owes nothing to anyone, we must ask of Him in prayer those things we need, seeing that He has constituted prayer as a necessary means for the accomplishment of our desires, particularly since there are blessings which we cannot hope to obtain otherwise than through prayer. Those who do not practice assiduous and regular prayer deprive themselves of a powerful means of obtaining valuable gifts. To succeed in obtaining the object of our desires, it is not enough that we ask that which is good; our entreaties must also be assiduous.

Unwise and Indevout Prayers Unheard.

Sometimes, indeed, it happens that what we ask of God we do not obtain. But it is then especially that God looks to our welfare, either because He bestows on us other gifts of higher value and in greater abundance, or because what we ask, far from being necessary or useful, would prove superfluous and injurious. God, says St. Augustine, denies some things in His mercy which He grants in His wrath.

Prayer Makes Us Realize Our Own Needfulness.

Moreover, God wishes us to realize, and always keep in mind, that, unassisted by His heavenly grace, we can of ourselves do nothing, and should therefore apply ourselves to prayer with all the powers of our souls.

Prayer Promotes A Virtuous Life.

From prayer we also derive this important advantage; that though we are inclined to evil and to the indulgence of various passions, through prayer God permits us to be inspired with a love of goodness and virtue, that we might be purified not only from sin itself, but also from the desire to sin.

Upcoming Events and Announcements:

Altar Flowers

The altar flowers for this Sunday are for Anthony & Irene Ortega, donated by The Ortega Family.

Viewing of “The Mass of the Ages” Movie

The first episode of “The Mass of the Ages” movie will be shown in the OLMC parish hall today, Sunday, August 15th at 6:00 PM. Popcorn will be available, bring your own beverages. Please come and enjoy this long awaited film with your fellow parishioners. The timing of the release of this movie episode about the Latin Mass is certainly providential.

You may also view the first episode of the movie at home by going to www.theliturgy.org and clicking on the “Get Notified” button. They will email you a link to watch the movie for free via a livestream on 8/15.

Book of the Month

The Anti-Mary Exposed

Offered in the little book store located in the parish vestibule

Fr. Kluge is beginning a book of the month series for the little book store at OLMC! The first recommended book by him is The Anti-Mary Exposed, available in the book store for the month of August, each copy costing $19.

The book is about how radical feminism is connected to the errors of Russia, spoken of by Our Lady of Fatima, along with the involvement and influence of the goddess movement, the occult, and much more! The antidote is, of course, Mary, the mother of God, who is the perfect model of Christian femininity.

Souls of the Christian Apostolate Conference

There will be a conference for young adults in Denver this summer from August 13-15th. It will be a weekend filled with formation talks, socials, Latin Masses, a processional with the Archbishop of Denver, a waltz, a hike, and more!

Check it out at <https://www.socapostolate.org/interiorapostles/>

The Federation of North American Explorers (FNE)

FNE will be holding the first meeting of the new program year on August 28th starting with 8:30 am mass at OLMC. The FNE is a traditional Catholic scouting program based on the methods of Lord Robert Baden-Powell (the founder of the scouting movement). The purpose of the FNE is to make saints. The FNE has separate boys and girls sections for youth ages 6 years old to 24 years old. If you are interested in being part of this traditional scouting movement email info@olmcexplorers.org for more information.

3 Hearts Pilgrimage

The 2nd annual 3 Hearts Pilgrimage, led by our very own Fr. Nolan, will be held on October 21, 22, 23 in Hulbert, OK, in association with Clear Creek Abbey. Contact Edmund Wong, akinabalu@yahoo.com for more information.

Homeschoolers

The parish's homeschool group is in summer mode, which means we will only be meeting for the first and third Fridays of the month instead of every Friday. Join us after the 8:30 AM Mass on those days! To learn more about the location of our meet-ups and about upcoming events, please send a blank email to this address to subscribe to our communication platform: OLMChomeschoolers+subscribe@groups.io

A Retreat with Immaculée

The love of a single heart can make a world of difference.

Join Immaculée Ilibagiza, Rwandan genocide survivor and New York Times best-selling author of Left to Tell, for a moving two-day retreat on faith, hope, love, and forgiveness. This retreat includes Immaculée's witness of the power of prayer, miracles of the Rosary, and inspirational music. No one will leave this retreat the same as when they came. It will be Friday, Sept. 17 from 5-9 pm & Saturday, Sept. 18 from 9-1pm and the cost is $57 per person ($76 per couple).
