Ss. Peter and Paul

June 29, 2025

Sancti Petrus et Paulus

From Fr. Loftus

Today, being the patronal feast of the Fraternity of Saint Peter, I thought it fitting to share a little history of the FSSP and a little about the charism of our Fraternity. The Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter (FSSP) is a clerical Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right, that is, a community of priests who do not take religious vows, but who work together for a common mission in the Catholic Church, under the authority of the Holy See.

Following the illicit consecrations of four bishops by Archbishop Lefebvre in June of 1988, eleven priests and one deacon from the Society of St. Pius X (SSPX) went to Rome and met with Cardinal Ratzinger and Pope John Paul II to request the founding of a new traditional society that would be faithful to the Holy Father and in full communion with the Roman Catholic Church. We were canonically erected by Pope St. John Paul II in October of 1988 and were given the name, The Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, to show our fidelity to St. Peter's successor in Rome.

As for our charism, our Constitutions state: The objective of the Fraternity of Saint Peter is the sanctification of priests through the exercise of the priesthood, and in particular, to orient and direct the life of the priest toward that which is essentially his raison d'être, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, with all that it signifies, all that flows from it, all that is complementary to it.

The members of the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, nourished through the spiritual riches of the Church's ancient Roman Liturgy, strive to accomplish our mission in a threefold manner; first, through the formation of priests in our two international seminaries. Second, by growing in the virtue of Charity through living common life according to our constitutions. And third, through the care of souls and pastoral activities in the service of the Church. The Fraternity has chosen St. Peter as our special patron in order to express our gratitude, filial love, and loyalty to the Supreme Pontiff. With more than 350 priests and 180 seminarians from 30 countries, the Fraternity serves in over 130 dioceses on 5 continents. International headquarters are located in Fribourg, Switzerland and North American headquarters in the Diocese of Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Using the ancient liturgy as our well-spring, we form our priests in the traditions of the Church to serve at the altar and in the parish so that the fullness of Christ might enter the emptiness of the world.

Our Fraternity holds the Traditional Latin Mass at the heart of our charism because we believe that it distinctly expresses the sacrificial nature of the priesthood and provides an unchanging and beautiful mode of prayer and contemplation sanctified by time and usage. The Mass is the most profound gift that we have received from Our Lord. It is that by which sinners are called to conversion and saints are formed and fashioned. It serves to lift many hearts and souls to God for His Greater Glory and the Salvation of Souls.

What earlier generations held as sacred, remains sacred and great for us too... It behooves all of us to preserve the riches which have developed in the Church's faith and prayer, and to give them their proper place."

– Benedict XVI

On today's feast, please pray for Pope Leo XIV and for all the priests of the FSSP, that we might remain faithful to our sacred mission within the Church - the sanctification of priests and the salvation of souls.
